21st TSC "Accident Reporting"

References:

- AR 385-40, 1 Nov 94, Accident Reporting and Records
- AE Reg 385-40, 24 Jun 03, Accident Reporting and Records
- DA Pam 385-40, 1 Nov 94, Army Accident Investigation and Reporting
- 21st TSC Pam 385-10, 15 Dec 03, Safety and Occupational Health

21st TSC "Accident Reporting"

Record

- Military Injuries (on or off-duty) with more than 24 hours lost time.
- Civilian on-the-job injuries resulting in lost time.
- Army Motor Vehicle Accidents resulting in Army property damage >$2,000.
- Other accidents resulting in Army property damage >$2,000.

21st TSC
"Accident Reporting"

Note:

All Accidents are Reportable!

All Recordable Accidents must be Reported – Through Channels – to the U.S. Army Safety Center

21st TSC
"Accident Reporting"

Reporting Procedures (Forms):

- U.S. Army Accident Report (DA Form 285),

  for Class A-B Accidents

- U.S. Army Abbreviated Ground Accident

21st TSC
"Accident Reporting"

Reporting Procedures (Forms)

- AE Form 385-40A and AE Form 385-40B for Local National (LN) Employees, for Class C Accidents
- CA-1 and CA-2 for Department of the Army Civilians (DAC) and Contractors, for Class C Accidents

21st TSC
"Accident Reporting"

Reporting Procedures:

- Accident Reports must be received at the 21st TSC Safety Office within 12 working days.

- Special procedures / requirements for Class A and B accidents.

21st TSC "Accident Reporting"

Class A and B Accidents:

- Injuries resulting in death or permanent disability.
- Accidents with damage >$200,000.
- Accidents resulting in hospitalization of 3 or more people.

Telephonic notification of 21st TSC Safety Office required

21st TSC "Accident Reporting"

Additional information is at:

https://safety.army.mil/pages/investigation/index.html

(U.S. Army Safety Center Information Page)

http://docs.usapa.belvoir.army.mil/jw2/xmldemo/r385_40/cover.asp

(Army Regulation 385-40, Accident Reporting and Records)